Lawyer Abe Hummel had determine to appear in the Superior Court this morning and make an application for an injunction on behalf of Oscar Ham merstein to restrain Koster & from running their music hall, the appellant alleging defiance of his right and injustice in the corporate relations of the parties.

Mr. Hummel and Mr. Hammerstein rushed into Judge Dugro's court to gether at about 11 o'clock. They dropped into adjoining seats, ran over some papers, whispered together and then into adjoining seats, ran over some papers, whispered together and then get up and fied.

Lawyer Steinhart stated a few minutes later that the application had been abandoned to-day because it was discovered that the necessary affidavit of the expert accountant was wanting. A measenger had been sent to get it, but as that would take several hours, he thought that proceedings would be deferred till Monday.
